"My daughter and I go here for quick lunches," Ryan says. "I'm a pistachio girl, and Gisele generally gets whatever is purple that day — with sprinkles, of course."

RHODE ISLAND STATE HOUSE

82 Smith St.

"Definitely check out the old State House, designed by Stanford White," Delany says. "It has the fourth-largest self-supported marble dome in the world."

RED STRIPE

465 Angell St.

"This little bistro in Wayland Square is my go-to place," Ryan says. "My daughter loves it too. They have a great coq au vin."

AL FORNO RESTAURANT

577 South Main St.

"Al Forno is still the gold standard in a city filled with great restaurants," Delany says. "But any Italian spot on Federal Hill will be worthwhile."
